The War Today...

By DeWitt MacKenzie
AP War Analyst

JAPANESE MILITARISTS (the real rulers of Nippon) are said by competent observers in the Orient to recognize that they will lose this war but are hoping to secure a liberal peace and meantime to create an Asiatic bloc of countries which they can lead against the white races 25 years hence.

That sounds fantastic, but it isn't. It fits in with the signs of the times, and represents a menace even more deadly than Prussian militarism, because it's calculated to pit the east against the west—a racial conflict.

My own observations in the east have convinced me of that. There's real danger of the formation of an Asiatic bloc. The Japs are working the "big brother" game rather smartly in spots, as witness Burma and Thailand (Siam), which actually are fighting for the Mikado.

Free word of this trend has been brought out of a Jap internment camp in the Philippines by Raymond P. Cronin, who was chief of The Associated Press bureau in Manila when the Nipponese invaded the island. Cronin is on the Exchange Ship Gripsholm which has reached South African enroute to America.

The A. P. correspondent says his informants express the belief that Jap military men in the field are attempting to sow the seeds of brotherhood among the Asiatic races in preparation for the next war. A similar report comes from another A. P. correspondent, Russell Brines, who also is on the Gripsholm after nearly two years' internment in Shanghai and Manila.

Brines reports that the Jap militarists are conducting an extensive propaganda campaign among their people to sell the idea of protecting Asia against British-American "imperialism." A lot of "imperialistic" talk sticks, too, for I found it there myself.

BOTH CRONIN and Brines believe the Japanese military machine is capable of waging a long, hard war and intends to fight to a finish. While the leaders recognize that they must surrender ultimately, this fact is being kept from the Japanese people, whose morale appears to be good. The militarists hope that the peace terms will leave Japan a first class power, and that they can create an anti-western bloc which will carry on under Tokyo's leadership.

This Japanese effort to establish an Asiatic bloc isn't a thing to be brushed aside lightly, because we can't say in advance that victory over the Mikado's forces will eliminate the political danger. The Japs are treading circumspectly, and we can see the danger signals in such places as Burma and Siam, which apparently accept Jap leadership willingly.

There are other disquieting factors in the situation. You know, we shouldn't fool ourselves into believing that all the peoples of the Orient are in love with either America or Britain. A lot of folk out there don't like us.

As I've reported in this column previously, there is a widespread feeling in the Orient that the four freedoms and the Atlantic charter aren't intended for the peoples of the east at all, but only for the west. Even China, our ally, has been much concerned over this, as has neighboring India.

THE SITUATION has been complicated by India's bitterness over the political quarrel with Britain, an imbroglio in which high Chinese personages sympathize with

Candle Light Ceremony For Armed Forces

Pastor Plans Meditation Service; Legion, Men's Families Guests

A candle light meditation service, in honor of the Salem boys serving in the present war, will be conducted at the Memorial building at 7:30 p. m. Sunday, when members of Charles H. Carey post, American Legion, and its Auxiliary are guests of Rev. S. Talmage Magann, pastor of the Baptist church.

On this occasion, which replaces the annual church service for Legionnaires on the Sunday preceding Armistice day, Rev. Magann will be assisted by Rev. Fr. Richard Gaffney, pastor of St. Paul's Catholic church.

On the stage will be 15 candles, one for each 100 Salem boys now in the armed service, and Boy Scouts will light them with appropriate remarks by Rev. Magann. The pastor will deliver a 15-minute talk.

A special invitation to attend this service is issued to parents, wives and families of all service men in the present war.

The Legion's Armistice day banquet will be held in the Memorial building Thursday evening, Nov. 11, when Colin Doyle will be the speaker. Commander Ted H. Coyne of the Legion plans to invite all Salem men who have been discharged from the armed service. A total of 65 Salem men have been given discharges.

NAZI POSITION IN RUSSIA IS WORSE

MOSCOW, Nov. 4.—The whole German position in south Russia grew worse by the hour today as the Red army reached the lower reaches of the Dnieper river in strength at numerous places and approached the port of Kherson at its mouth.

In other sectors, Soviet bombers and Stomovik planes blasted hundreds of Germans trying to make their way to the western bank.

The Berlin radio announced a new Russian landing in the eastern Crimea south of Kerch. The Germans asserted that the three-day-old bridgehead south of the Crimean port had been reduced.

The Germans also announced a renewed Russian offensive pointing north and west of Kiev in the sector above the Ukrainian capital. Strong artillery preparation preceded the attack, followed by formations of battle planes. Berlin said the "heavy defense battle." The Russians have not intimidated a crossing of the lower Dnieper.

ALLIED TROOPS DASH FORWARD ON WIDE FRONT

New Gains Put 5th Army Within 85 Miles of Italian Capital

(By Associated Press)
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, ALGIERS, Nov. 4.—Allied headquarters announced tonight the capture of Isernia, mountain road junction in the central front.

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN ALGIERS, Nov. 4.—Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's Fifth Army dashed forward on a 40-mile front for gains of five to eight miles on the western Italian sector, advancing to within 85 miles of Rome and throwing the enemy back in a steady retreat across the broad Garigliano river valley. Allied headquarters announced today.

Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's Eighth army also advanced in nearly all sectors, marching up the Botano-Isernia road and battering its way into Castelvetrano, less than seven miles southeast of Isernia, the mountain highway hub in the center of Marshal Erwin Rommel's present defense line.

Gen. Clark's British and American swept the Germans from their last strongholds around Massico ridge, the massive anchor of the strongly fortified mountain line which the Germans apparently hoped to hold until winter, and brushed them out of their last footholds on lofty San Croce mountain to the northeast.

Yesterday, Clark's warriors were astride the main coastal road to Rome at a point beyond Sessa Aurunca.

The pursuing British and Americans also had occupied Roccamandara, five miles northwest of Teano at the foot of San Croce, and Prezzeno, northwest of San Croce and only five miles southeast of Mignano.

Savage Battle Rages

The Eighth army of Montgomery forced new crossings of the Trigno river on the Adriatic front. A savage battle raged around its original bridgehead at the railway station of San Salvo where the Nazis threw tanks and artillery into repeated attempts to hurl the British back over the barrier.

At least 20 Mark IV special tanks participated in the enemy's desperate but futile counterattacks and at the end of a day of bloody fighting Montgomery had driven them all back and gained some ground and taken a considerable number of German prisoners.

Scores of towns and villages were freed of enemy occupation in the 40-mile path of the Fifth army's advance.

As the British waves swept over Mt. Massico and British and Americans rolled across San Croce, the

MINERS EXPECTED BACK LATE TODAY

(By Associated Press)
BELLARE, Nov. 4.—The back to work movement in the Ohio coal fields started slowly today, with only one large pit—the American Coal Co. of Cambridge—reported in operation.

Three other mines had clean-up crews at work in preparation for the afternoon shift, which reports at 4 p. m.

The Powhatan mine, which normally employs 900 men, had 50 men at work. The Wheeling township mine at Adena (Jefferson county) had 75 men in the pit and 50 men reported to the Akron Coal Co., at Seneca, in Guernsey county.

Several trucking mines in various parts of the state were working again, but all these employ less than 100 men.

One operator said that his mine had not been officially notified of settlement until 4 a. m., and that he expected a full crew late this afternoon.

Adolph Pacifico, vice president of district No. 6, United Mine Workers, said many men lived in such out-of-the-way places it was impossible to contact them immediately.

"I doubt if there will be full crews in any of the shafts until the afternoon shift," he said.

In the Hooking valley field the 16 major pits which ship coal by train were idle, but it was reported some of the smaller mines which deliver coal by truck to surrounding cities had resumed operations.

Skeleton Of Appropriations Bill Remains After 'Boning'

By ALEX H. SINGLETON
WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The skeleton-like remnants of a $1,196,428,749 catch-all appropriations bill emerged from the house deficiency subcommittee today slashed by 82 per cent in a congressional economy drive—to a total of $215,368,444.

Aftermath of six weeks of day-and-night scrutiny into the requests of almost two-score government agencies for extra funds, the measure went to the house floor with several proposed allocations reduced drastically, others eliminated entirely.

Escaping the "bone removing operation"—a description which came from Chairman Cannon (D-Mo)—the off-embattled Office of War Information was granted its request for an additional $3,000,000 after top-ranking military chiefs highly praised its war work.

Navy Request Reduced

The biggest single cut was in refusing the Navy's request for an additional $750,000,000 for its stock fund capital. Instead, the committee suggested transfer to the fund of that amount from previous appropriations for Navy ordnance.

Opening the way for resumption of a battle over the future of the Farm Security administration, the committee turned down that agency's request for $5,500,000 for salaries and expenses and denied its request for authority to borrow $37,500,000 more for operating loans to farmers.

Even as the committee stressed economy without danger to the war effort, it touched upon the problem of disposing of large quantities of surplus war material which no longer is needed.

"Unless congress makes some definite provision in the near future," the report said, "there is likely to be a recurrence of the situation of World war 1, where large surpluses were in the hands of individuals."

More than 500 persons were in the audience which attended the recently-organized amateur theater group's initial dramatic effort. Outstanding individual performances put the stamp of top entertainment in the non-professional field on the play, which was directed by Ora E. Anderson, president of the club.

Cast members were Anderson, Miss Phoebe Ellen Parsons, David Bevan, Walter B. Null II, Franklin Smith, Robert Snyder, Mrs. Charles Kennedy, W. F. Ross, Mrs. Sara Womner, Jack Kohl and Loriz Caplan.

Attractive, well-executed stage settings formed a background for the tale of eight guests invited to a dinner party at which death is the unwelcome ninth guest. Stage settings were arranged by Mrs. Loriz Caplan, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Ralph Vance, Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. Joyce Summerville and Miss Isabel Lockhart.

Club members whose work contributed materially to the marked success of the production include: Make-up, Mrs. Harold Wyckoff, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Null and Mrs. C. J. O'Neill Takes Lead In Youngstown Mayor Race

YOUNGSTOWN, Nov. 4.—Mahoning county's board of elections will meet this afternoon to make the official count in Youngstown's mayoral race which so far has changed twice.

Tuesday night City Engineer Ralph W. O'Neill appeared the winner, but a 20-vote error discovered a short time later gave Arthur H. Williams, Republican, a six vote margin.

The board counted disputed ballots Wednesday, giving O'Neill 57 and Williams 44. This put O'Neill in the lead again by seven votes.

If the official count today is close it is expected one or both candidates will file demands for a recount of various precincts.

NIGHT RAIDERS BLAST TARGETS

U. S. and British Planes Drop Bombs on Duesseldorf and Cologne

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, Nov. 4.—A great fleet of RAF heavy bombers hammered the German industrial cities of Duesseldorf and Cologne last night in a swift sequel to a smashing daylight attack on Wilhelmshaven by the largest force of American aircraft ever thrown against the Reich.

The main blow was concentrated on Duesseldorf, making that big Ruhr armament center probably the world's most heavily bombed city next to Hamburg, while a diversionary assault by a smaller force was made on Cologne on the river. Mosquitoes also bombed objectives in the Ruhr and Rhineland.

Nineteen aircraft were lost in the night's operations, which included minelaying in German waters and intruder patrols over targets in France and the low countries. Four enemy aircraft were destroyed by the bombers.

Dispatches from Stockholm quoted the Social Democrats as saying more than 1,000 persons were killed in Tuesday's attack by the United States heavy bombers based in the Mediterranean theater on Wiener Neustadt, Austria.

Previously attacked 122 times, Cologne has many vital war targets, including a synthetic oil plant and a Diesel engine factory.

In the RAF's last large scale operation, the night of Oct. 22, the main force went to Kassel. Since then fog and rain had prevented

20,000 Occidentals Still Interned By Japanese Officials

By RUSSELL BRINES
Associated Press Writer
PORT ELIZABETH, Union of South Africa, Nov. 4.—Nearly 20,000 Occidental civilians, 6,300 of the Americans, still remain in internment camps in Japan, China and the Philippines, and all face steady dwindling—good supplies and a growing shortage of medicines in future months.

This was disclosed by a survey of the 1,500 repatriates aboard the Exchange Liner Gripsholm who came from 28 of the 33 large and small civilian camps the Japanese are known to be maintaining in those countries.

The food and medicine shortages were attributed to the disruption of communications and rising living costs.

The situation was said to be particularly acute on Hongkong island. Repatriates declared that more than 1,000,000 Chinese and foreigners, including 2,000 British civilian internees, are near starvation there.

These sources expect a famine this winter in Hongkong city and unless the Japanese Exchange Liner Teia Maru deposits a cargo of Red Cross supplies promptly—a heavy toll of deaths will result among internees in Camp Stanley.

Some Are Free

In addition to the 6,300 Americans, approximately 13,500 British, Canadians and Netherlands remain in the camps in Japan, China and the Philippines. A few hundred still are free because of medical

NEW CONTRACT GIVES WORKERS $1.50 DAY MORE

Agreement Is Reached By UMW Officials and Secretary Ickes

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The nation's coal mines returned slowly to production today, released from the grip of a paralyzing three-day strike by an agreement increasing the bituminous miners' earnings at least $1.50 a day or about $11.50 for a six-day week.

The miners, after virtually ignoring the appeal of President Roosevelt to return to work yesterday, started back to the pits on orders of John L. Lewis, president, and other officers of the United Mine workers who advised them of a "satisfactory agreement" with Secretary of the Interior Ickes, the U. S. fuels boss.

The War Labor board said it would consider the agreement "first things" today.

Part of the soft coal wage boost is accounted for by cutting the lunch hour from 30 minutes to 15. Underground travel time also is to be recompensed after 40 hours a week. Ickes and Lewis fixed the travel time at 45 minutes a day. There is a question whether the UMB would accept this flat formula for all mines because travel time varies considerably.

The agreement also took in the hard coal miners.

Work Resumption Slow

Anthracite miners are allowed an additional 37.8 cents a day under the pact. Added to the 32.2 cents allowed by the WLB last week under its Little Steel formula, the total cash increase is 70 cents a day. Concessions approved by the WLB in the form of free tools are not included in either totals. They are estimated to be worth 20 to 25 cents a day for all miners.

While the reaction among the miners was generally favorable, actual coal digging was slow to get under way. Normal production before next week was considered unlikely at many mines.

The union miners have been without a contract since May 1. There have been four strikes this year as a direct outcome of the wage arguments and President Roosevelt has ordered the mines seized by the government twice. Originally, the UMW asked approximately $2 a day more pay boost; some operators offered 88 cents. The Illinois contract, offered as a model, provided $1.50. The War Labor board said $1.12 could be approved but more than that would violate the hold-the-line policy against inflation.

Question: "Who Won?"

The basis of settlement provided no simple, categorical answer to the simple question, "who won?" If the WLB approves, it will do so under its own interpretation of the wage stabilization policy. The miners will get more money but it will mean increased working time in most cases. They will get paid for underground travel time, but only

ELECTION RESULTS

Although results of Tuesday's election in Salem were anticipated in every respect, it is a satisfaction to know that the voting did not produce any surprises, for an upset in any of the contests would not have been in the interest of public welfare. Heading the list was Mayor Johnson, whose administration has been very satisfactory during his first term and who deserved the second term the voters granted him. Even a strong opposing candidate would have found it most difficult to unseat him at this time.

Return of the three school board members whose terms expire this year also was wise. They have given a good account of themselves in handling the business affairs of the public school system and no sound reason was advanced for removal of any one of the three. The business experience and sound judgment of all three have been invaluable assets and the public's best interests will continue to be served, it is safe to assume.

Perhaps the most encouraging result of Tuesday's election was the favorable vote given the renewal of the school tax levy. This necessary financial aid for the operation of the schools never has been in real danger in other elections, but the 85 per cent vote given it Tuesday was the largest it ever has received, indicating an increasing interest on the part of the public in operating the school system on the highest plane possible.

APPEASING THE OBJECTORS

It is not particularly clear at this moment what advocates of the proposed city ordinance regulating the sale of 3.2 beer on Sundays hope to attain, unless it merely is a sop to appease the few dispensers who objected to the ordinance previously introduced to prohibit beer sales at any time on Sunday. In fact it was not clear why the first measure was voted down, in view of the fact that only two or three objected to it while the great majority of permit holders advocated it and strongly urged its passage. Sale of 3.2 beer on Sunday has not been considered objectionable in the past because beer of that content is not regarded legally as being intoxicating. But if most of the dispensers wanted to clean their own premises by eliminating Sunday sales it is difficult to find a good excuse for turning them down.

The ordinance which is expected to be introduced at the next meeting of council proposes to permit the sale of 3.2 beer only after 2 p. m. on Sundays. Since a little observation will reveal that most of the Sunday beer sales are made in the afternoon and evening, the only conclusion to be drawn is that the proposed measure means little or nothing.

Dealing with any measure on this subject may be ticklish business, but what good the proposed measure is expected to produce is still somewhat of a puzzle.

MUDDLING THE MINES

The coal mine situation in the United States has reached that point of confusion where no one can claim legitimately any more that he understands what is going on—and this includes operators, union spokesmen, the chief executive of the nation, Solid Fuels Administrator Ickes, various officials charged with responsibility for labor relations and everybody else who has a finger in the pie.

The whole mess simmers down to this, the one thing which everybody can understand and agree on: The United States is not going to lose a war because the conduct of the coal industry has gone haywire in a national emergency. The British policy of muddling through is being applied to the problem, with results that surely would gratify even the most conscientious practitioners of the muddling art. As one thing leads to another, whatever other policies may seem called for will be applied. The public may hope, meanwhile, that there will be enough coal; but it cannot be sure.

The mines have now been taken away from the operators again. The administration, having bobbled its attempt to handle labor relations, is depending on the Connally-Smith act, whose passage it opposed, to extricate itself from its own impasse over a new contract. John L. Lewis, spokesman for United Mine Workers, is still at odds with President Roosevelt. The United States is waiting for more coal. Germany and Japan must be speculating on the improvement in their chances. They are wrong, of course, but through no fault of the citizens who have collaborated in the master muddling of the mines.

BY WAY OF CONTRAST

The hangover from preoccupation with the home front yields to the kind of treatment offered by Gen. MacArthur, challenging the Japanese to come out and fight after advancing to within 200 miles of Rabaul and outflanking Japanese forces holding island positions in the rear of the latest Allied advance.

It is easy to forget that Gen. MacArthur is continuing to make spectacular advances at the southern extremity of Japan's long Pacific front and making them with a freely admitted shortage of the equipment essential for large-scale action. There is perhaps too much attention to the trend of the war in Russia and Italy, where the scale of operations is vastly larger but not correspondingly more important than the probable effect of the offensive which wasn't expected in the South Pacific.

Whatever apprehension exists in Tokyo, and recent statements by government spokesmen suggest that apprehension is growing acute, is generated by the unfavorable news from the front where Gen. MacArthur's Allied armies, air forces and naval forces are moving forward steadily and now may dare the Japanese to come out and fight because the Allies have implicit confidence in their ability to lick them. It is the kind of news that keeps the troubles on the home front from getting out of focus. The war, fortunately, is in surer hands.

DECISIVE and swift action may be most successfully applied to launching important projects, either new and ambitious enterprises, or old efforts that need a fresh infusion of new life and energy. This may best be attacked with individual initiative, since there is little promise of cooperation from those whose position or resources might be helpful. There may be opposition or obstruction, but in all be patient and persevering and bring tact to bear on difficult situations. As well be logical and reasonable.

If It Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is may have a splendid opportunity to attain some important goal in a new direction, or to accelerate a lagging matter, by quick attack and initiative, although it may be necessary to surmount obstacles or peculiar circumstance, either by compromise with superiors or by very determined and direct action, based on wisdom and experience or special skill. High marks of achievement may be reached by needed restraints, even with bold initiative and tact.

FIRST I want to protest against the practice of referring to "ulcers" of the stomach. There is, for all practical purposes, one and it is an ulcer of the stomach. No doctor ever says "ulcers" of the stomach. The fact that it is a single round solution of continuity in the mucosa of the stomach is one of its most puzzling characteristics. It also may be the best clue to its cause. There used to be an old school book question: "Why doesn't the secretion of the stomach digest itself?" And I for one can't answer it even yet.

Dr. Clendenning will answer questions of general interest, only, and then only through his column.

It does sometimes in a limited area and that is called an ulcer. We must suppose then that there is a focal point of lack of resistance—like a focus of infection—which allows the stomach to digest part of its own wall. That, to me, is the only cause of ulcer of the stomach that makes sense.

Emotional Factor

There is also an emotional factor. I wrote recently of how many soldiers in Africa were hospitalized on account of ulcer. Why? This should be so, we do not know. The stomach juice is increased under the emotions of fear, hate and love, and perhaps a small part which is not too resistant under these circumstances undergoes digestion.

At any rate, it is a very common disease. I have not and could not enumerate all the theories of its causation which have been advanced.

One thing for all ulcer patients to remember is that the ulcers have a tendency to heal. They occur in younger people and probably by the time the person is 40, the chances are 50 to one that the ulcer he worried about when he was 20 is gone.

So in general, treatment comes down to some very simple divisions. There is, in the first place, the fellow who has a simple ulcer, not very deep, due to a love affair and a bad tooth combined, who learns to treat himself. He takes a tablet of bicarbonate of soda every hour, or a tablet of aluminum hydroxide every hour until he forgets about it and then takes one every two, and then every three, and before you know it he is cured. (Or milk of magnesia is favored by some.) You can always tell these fellows by the fact that they have a little white seam in the corners of their mouth.

Case for Hospitalization

Then there is the fellow who is a little worse. Maybe he had a worse love affair. Anyway the place for him is in the hospital. He needs his stomach washed out just before he goes to bed, or he needs a continuous drip of aluminum hydroxide by stomach tube. He may have bled some and needs a transfusion. His case takes a little longer, but in nine cases out of ten he gets well too.

The fellow in the third group needs surgery. His ulcer shows no tendency to heal, he bleeds from it, it stops up his stomach opening and he vomits and is always uncomfortable. His chances with a good surgeon, though, are very good.

But the idea you can treat them all the same way belongs to the fellows who are just learning their ABCs in medicine.

She's as lively as a Youngster—
Now her Backache is better

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

She's as lively as a Youngster—
Now her Backache is better

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

YANKS DRIVE ON

Germans left behind a scene of devastation aimed at impeding the advance until a new defense line can be established, perhaps with the towering Aurunci mountains beyond the Garigliano as a hinge.

Examination of the positions revealed the Germans had spent six weeks in the feverish building of heavily-gunned fortifications.

Bernia Threatened
The taking of Prezennano by the Americans was described by a military commentator as "most important and a very fine performance," particularly for troops who gained their first real taste of modern warfare only a few weeks ago at Salerno.

This brought the Americans also within striking distance of Isernia, 15 miles to the northeast, also threatened by Gen. Montgomery's advance on the east side of the Matese mountains.

With weather conditions still improving along the entire front, both Allied armies were able to move tanks and guns up to the front with greater speed.

The clearing skies also gave to the Allied air forces one of their busiest days of the war, as they ripped at Nazi troop concentrations, and gun positions on the entire front, set a thousand-ton enemy cargo ship aflame and smashed heavily at the German airfield at Arxos in Greece and the Zara harbor, a supply port for the Nazis in Yugoslavia.

Air Activity Heavy
Six waves of light and medium bombers blasted an enemy supply dump near Capello, southwest of Vasto on the Adriatic. Enemy aircraft were smashed in their nest at Ancona, 120 miles west of Ancona, on the Adriatic front, and Littoria, south of Rome.

RAF bombers scored many direct hits on the railway yards at Ceccano, west of Frosinone on the main inland road to Rome from Cassino, and other bombers attacked roads and buildings at Ceperano to the south on the same artery.

The battered Nazi supply lines were raked in "countless missions" Allied headquarters said, with RAF South African Air Force, Royal Australian Air Force and American Kittybombers and Warhawks spreading a carpet of bombs on road junctions at Celena along the Trigno, Vasto, Alfedena north of Venafro and Palmoli, and destroying 10 transports in staffing at Avezzano.

NEW CONTRACT

after 40 hours a week. Another possible result is higher coal prices, a factor the agreement did not mention. Increases probably would vary between 15 and 45 cents a ton.

The bituminous sections of the agreement provides the same earnings as were proposed in the Illinois contract which the WLB rejected. The new pact proposes to meet the WLB's terms, however, by cutting the 30-minute lunch period in half and adding the quarter-hour thus saved to the productive day at time and a half.

The new soft coal work day is 8 1/2 hours, portal to portal, which is the time the miner spends producing coal and traveling to and from his place of work underground. Eight hours of this is measured as productive time and three-quarters of an hour as travel time. The old 7-hour day was all productive time.

The effect on the miner is this: He receives $20 a day instead of $7 and agrees to dig coal an hour longer for the increase. This comes to a little over $57. The same man's present earnings for a six-day week of 42 hours, all productive, is $45.50. The outside day laborer, now getting a basic wage of $6 a day, will work 8 1/2 hours and receive $7.61.

Average Pay $57
The total six-day week is 52 1/2 hours, of which 40 hours are paid for at straight time and 12 1/2 hours at time and a half. This comes to a little over $57. The same man's present earnings for a six-day week of 42 hours, all productive, is $45.50. The outside day laborer, now getting a basic wage of $6 a day, will work 8 1/2 hours and receive $7.61.

In the case of anthracite miners, no portal-to-portal problem is involved. Their present productive pay is understood except for the reduction in lunch period for "day and monthly" men. These paid on a time basis rather than output.

The increase of 37.8 cents is paid for the 15 minutes which is taken from lunch. The WLB estimated anthracite earnings at $7.08 for a 7-hour day. This breaks down to $1.01 plus per hour. A quarter of that is 25 cents plus. At time and a half, the result is 37.8 cents.

The tonnage man, usually called a "contract" miner, have no regular lunch period, if any at all, and no regular quitting time. The miners say the benefit of the 37.8 cent increase is extended to the tonnage worker on the basis that each "start" has been traditionally regarded as a day's work, regardless of the time spent underground in production.

and religious exemptions or special technical employment. About 100 others are free in South Indo-China and 50 others are in confinement in a center near Saigon.

Most of the Americans, some 5,000 of them, remain in the Philippines in three major camps. Possibly less than 100 are in Japan, the remainder having been sent to China.

In most camps the internees are able to maintain an Occidental subsistence ration only through using their own funds for outside purchases to augment Japanese-issued rations.

Internee officials have attempted to obtain Japanese permission to have foodstuffs unloaded this time during the Teia Maru's scheduled stopover in Hongkong on the homeward journey, but the Japanese gave no assurance.

The condition of several thousand British and Canadian war prisoners at Kowloon is unknown.

No relief is in sight for the approximately 1,000,000 Chinese in Hong Kong who now are surviving on the last of the colony's large pre-war supply of canned goods, plus small imports. The repatriates reported hundreds in the city were so weak that they could barely walk about last summer.

Medicines Are Low
Throughout China and the Philippines the Japanese have given the camps only a negligible amount of medicines, all of which apparently are needed for the Army. Camp clinics are maintained by purchases in the dwindling market.

Dysentery, dengue fever, some jaundice and tuberculosis were reported in the Philippine camps.

Despite the hardships they are facing there is evidence that some internees have no wish for repatriation. A poll taken in Santo Tomas, Manila, revealed that 69 per cent of 3,900 persons wished repatriation, but 21 per cent indicated their willingness to remain. Ten per cent failed to answer.

The majority of those willing to remain expressed a desire to "see the show through" and give moral support to the Filipinos, or believed the end of the war imminent and desired to be on hand for the reopening of business. There were a few adherents to this last theory in China and a number of missionaries desired to remain in order to continue their work.

Many men declined repatriation awaiting the opportunity to take their wives to the United States.

CITIES BOMBED

both the RAF and USAAF from resuming combined day and night blows.

Yesterday, great armadas of American planes—estimated unofficially to total more than 1,000, including fighters—took advantage of the weather break and resumed the offensive. The North sea port and naval base of Wilhelmshaven was the chief target of the Fortresses and Liberators. They were escorted all the way by Thunderbolts and Lightnings.

The number of heavy bombers participating was not disclosed, but the largest previously reported American heavy operation involved 400 planes, making it appear that 500 or more were sent against Wilhelmshaven. Five heavy bombers and two fighters were lost.

It was the seventh United States attack on this naval base. An official announcement said the load of bombs dropped yesterday was greater than in all the previous raids.

Bomber gunners shot down 18 German fighters while the Thunderbolts and Lightnings were bagging 16 others.

A transcontinental bus ride to Oregon proves disappointing to a Manhattan working girl, Jean Arthur, until a tall and handsome rodeo rider is tossed right into her lap at a frontier celebration. And then things begin to happen in a hilarious fashion in "A Lady Takes a Chance," which shows at the State tonight, Friday and Saturday.

The story of the sighting and the sinking of the German battleship Bismarck is paralleled as the climactic action of the new feature, "Coastal Command," absorbing authentic revelation of the work of this branch of the R. The film will be at the Grand tonight, Friday and Saturday along with "The Lone Star Trail," starring Johnny Mack Brown and Tex Ritter.

Ready U. S. Super Bomber For Action

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—The Army's worst-kept secret, the new Boeing B-29 heavy bomber, finally emerged today from under wraps.

It is alright now to say there is a B-29.

General H. H. Arnold, Air Forces chief, let the cat out of the bag in a speech last Dec. 13.

Two weeks later a group of reporters got a complete description of the new super-bomber during a visit to Wright field, Ohio. They were not permitted to write anything about it, and didn't.

Now, at last, Arnold speaks in a formal statement:

"We now have a super-bomber. It is the B-29... evolved in secrecy during the past several years."

"This battleship of the air is armored heavily with multiple-gun and power turrets. It can fly at very high altitudes."

"Its performance will not be discussed before it enters combat. However, the B-29 will have a range substantially greater than the maximum effective range of today's longest-range heavy bomber and it will carry quite sizeable bomb loads for that distance."

"When it enters combat, today's long range will become medium range and today's heavy bombers will consequently become light bombers."

The final test of the B-29 is not now far distant, he said.

30 Driver Permits Have Been Revoked Under New Ruling

COLUMBUS, Nov. 4.—The State Bureau of Motor Vehicles reported today revocation of 30 Ohio motorists' driver licenses for three years under a recent change in state laws.

The amendment requires the bureau to suspend the driving privileges of operators convicted of certain offenses. These include manslaughter resulting from operation of a car, driving while under the influence of liquor or narcotics, failure to stop after an accident and commission of a felony involving the use of an automobile.

Since the amendment became effective Sept. 20 fifty persons have been reported to the bureau as having been convicted of one of these offenses.

To date 30 have failed to provide Cylon Wallace, state registrar of motor vehicles, with proof of financial responsibility in the sum of $11,000, as fixed by statute. Each offender is given 30 days to submit proof, either in insurance or liquid personal assets.

Wallace explained that the license suspension order must be vacated if the driver subsequently tenders financial responsibility proof. However, court suspension of driving privileges continues in force.

The War Today

India. Brines says Shanghai's controlled newspapers are devoting great space to the Indian Subhas Chandra Bose and his drive for a "new national Indian army," which Bose says will "march to New Delhi and liberate India with Japan's benevolent support." Bose fled India in 1940 with sedition charges against him, and the Japs have been trying through him to rally Indians to Nippon's cause.

From my own investigation in India I know that day and night the Nipponese are pouring a flood of anti-British propaganda into that country with the idea of capitalizing the political crisis. Lavish promises of "freedom" are being made by Tokyo, and neighboring Burma and the Philippines are being pointed to as examples of countries which have won their independence through Japanese beneficence.

Both China and India want to be included among the United Nations—but the necessity of removing all suspicions regarding the Western Allies is quite apparent. It's doubly so when one stops to consider that these two vast countries together have a population of some 900,000,000, which is close to half that of the whole world.

Salem And East Liverpool Renew Grid Rivalry Tomorrow

Capacity Crowd Is Expected To See Game In River City; Kickoff Scheduled For 6:45

Two "old rivals" and two "keyed up" football clubs will meet for their 28th annual battle tomorrow night on East Liverpool's Patterson field when the Quakers take to the road for the third time to protect their perfect record against the powers of the potent Potters.

The battle is slated to begin at 6:45 Salem time and is expected to draw a capacity throng.

Reports from both camps have the two squads in the best of shape and "fairly to go". East Liverpool will enter the fray with their entire squad in good physical condition for the first time in several games. Salem has one man, valuable "Benny" Kupka, regular center, out of the game with a broken knee. Otherwise the Quaker pack is intact.

A lot is at stake for the Quakers in the tussle. They have one of the few perfect records in the state to protect, and they have several scores to even with the Potters. It has been eight years since a Salem team has come out of the annual clash on the big end of the score, and it has been four years since a Quaker crew has made a good showing against the Potters. To boot, the popular captain of the local squad, Dick "Knobby" Greene, may be playing his last game for the Red and Black before entering the armed forces.

According to Coach Ben Barrett, the team is "up" for this game as it has never been this season. The players' mental attitude is splendid and Barrett believes the squad will turn the trick and break the "Liverpool jinx" that has followed Salem for so many years.

Starting Lineup
Barrett's starting lineup tomorrow will feature the same players that have served in all of the Quaker wins. Walter Brian, pass catching end, will start at left end with Francis Lannoy, rangy right terminal, on the other post.

Jack Smith, 160 pound senior, will be at left tackle coupled with

guards will be dependable Fred

Cain, another senior, and the mainstay of the Quaker line, John

Piege, diminutive 140 pound

Sophomore.

In the center position will be Dick

Karl, starting his first game for the locals. Karl has performed well all week and is expected to do his job full justice, Barrett said yesterday.

In the Salem backfield will be the all-veteran starters that have performed so well all season. Jay Leach and Ray Wise will be at quarterback and full respectively. The two scoring leaders, Dick Greene and "Flick" Enright, will occupy the left and right halfback jobs.

Aided By Substitutes

Barrett expects to make good use of several substitutes that have shown real spirit and capability all year. Bob Shea, a driving and deceptive back, probably will see plenty of action against the Potters.

Shea and Charles Franks, another valuable replacement, have been improving all week in practice and are slated to get into the game.

Robert Boone, 145 pound Negro

Freshman has been running all over the field this week and may see his first real action tomorrow night. Boone has been into a couple of games for a few minutes but hasn't had much varsity ball this season. "Pete" Davis, Bob Dusen-berry, Jim Appedison, and several other Quakers undoubtedly will play a part of the fuss and are dependent on by Barrett to strengthen the Salem power.

The most amazing thing about the Liverpool starting lineup is the front of solid poundage they presented. The starters to be used by Coach Capezzuti will probably be

Jack Donovan, 160 pound left end;

tackle; Bill Cooper, 170 pound left guard, who does the booting for the Potters.

Liverpool Back Heavy

At center for the Blue and White is Dick Smith, excellent line backer and a lad of some 155 pounds. The right side of the line features Don Doughty, 145-pound steady and dependable guard; George Russo, another 200-pound tackle; and

Clarence "Chuck" Torrence, pass-snatching end, who tips the scales at 140 pounds.

The Potter ball-toters are heavy,

but still manage to click off gains with considerable speed. Johnny

Bell, Negro quarterback, weighs about 180 pounds. Bobby Ward, the most potent Ceramic ball carrier, totals 155 pounds.

"Chuck" Means will probably get the starting signal from Capezzuti to occupy the left half spot. He weighs 155 pounds. At fullback will be Negro Henry Pack, 165-pound senior, who leads the Potters in scoring this season and

"picks" a terrific drive when hitting the center of the line.

A mass of strength is found in the East Liverpool reserves, who have been in and out of ball games so often this year that they can hardly be classed as substitutes.

Joe Barrett, another 200-pound lad, is a familiar sight at left tackle for the Ceramics, as is "Ty" Tysonievich in the line. The hulky

"Ty" plays tackle, guard or end and is used frequently in all games.

In the backfield the squad has capable replacements in Harry

Jackman, who weighs 180 pounds and fills in from time to time for

Henry Pack, and "Chuck" Winters, a junior of 170 pounds, who will see lots of action at right half.

Boast Reserve Material

Barrett has little fear of the Potters' terrific weight advantage but does feel a bit wary of the tremendous advantage the Quakers' hosts will have when it comes to shooting replacements into the game. The plucky Salem squad will have to face fresh Potters throughout the game. The battle as Coach Capezzuti alternates his men to keep them rested.

Three rough and tumble nights this week Coach Ben Barrett has run his Quaker squad against a lineup that featured members of Salem teams as far back as 1934.

The last year that Salem defeated

East Liverpool, the alumni players insisted upon calling themselves "Liverpool" and looked big enough to fill the bill.

Tuesday's alumni squad, for instance, boasted such former Quaker stars as Troy Cope, 34, Bob "Robbie" Snyder, 34, Felix DeAnna, 42,

Dan Oona, 43, Charlie Juliano, 41,

Al Kenst, 43, "Hammering" Harry Erhart, 43, "Tut" Gu-ppone, 42, "Bill" Shaeffer, 39, and Carmen "Toots" Nocera, 37.

Nocera and Shaeffer are both home from the Army on furlough.

All in all, the "old-timers" put up some really stiff opposition for the well-trained Quakers and, according to Coach Barrett, did the boys more good than any practice this year have done.

New Guinea was named "Isle del

Oro" by the Spaniard Saavedra in 1528.

Total Mobilization Of All East Asia Aim Of Japs Who Fear Coming Allied Attacks

EDITOR'S NOTE: Russell Brines, enroute home on the Exchange Liner Gripsholm after nearly two years of internment by the Japanese in Manila and Shanghai, tells in the following dispatch of Japan's plans for holding the East Asia empire she has conquered. Brines served in the Tokyo and Manila bureaus of The Associated Press before he was captured at the fall of Manila.

By RUSSELL BRINES
Copyright, 1943, By The Associated Press

PORT ELIZABETH, Union of South Africa, Nov. 4.—Japanese militarists are making every effort to mobilize totally all East Asia in anticipation of Allied attacks which they warn the people will be crucial.

There is ample evidence that the Japanese militarists are attempting feverishly to utilize to the fullest all resources of the manpower reservoir of their newly conquered territories; meanwhile they are reported to be constructing a series of defense lines for a vaunted "last man" battle for the Japanese empire.

Through censorship and internment walls these things are discernible:

1. The Japanese are anticipating a big Allied land smash against Burma.

2. Japanese militarists are still holding sizable and presumably crack forces in Manchuria to protect the rear against Russia and are probably maintaining other key units in the Netherlands East Indies and Malaya.

3. They are exploiting to the limit of their abilities raw materials which are all being diverted to war production and in which considerable forced labor is being used.

4. The controlled press is preparing the people of Asia for long, defensive battles ahead.

Morale in Japan appears to be unshaken, although some unrest is reported in other parts of the empire. The militarists and gendarmerie are enforcing compliance with vigorous measures, while an extensive propaganda campaign is attempting to sell the idea of protecting Asia against British-American "imperialism."

Guard East Indies, Malaya. General indications are that the Japanese plan to use Burmese, Indian and Thai troops as much as possible in the defense of Burma.

Chinese "peace preservation corps" are being trained to take over patrol duty in thinly garrisoned areas in China. My impression is that Japanese land forces will fight most desperately for the Netherlands East Indies and Malaya, whose raw materials are vital, and the strategic areas of central and north China and Manchuria, from where the Allies could threaten Japan's vital industrial areas from the air.

The controlled press is now directing attention to the prospective Burma campaign under the guise of thunderous anti-India propaganda.

Meanwhile travelers say that French Indo-China—the sole section of east Asia that is not completely Japanese-dominated—is becoming one of Japan's major military bases. Movements of troops and supplies are continuous. Travelers believe that Camranh bay, naval base on the east coast, is fortified but is not extensively used because its narrow entrance might allow Allied sea power to trap fleet units inside the harbor.

There are indications that the Japanese consider Burma a flank for which they will certainly fight, but loss of which will not be considered vital. They also believe that the granting of Burmese independence is intended to spur Burma's efforts for self-defense and to allow the Japanese to get out in case the Allies capture that country.

Troop Movements Unverified. The best information is that 650,000 Japanese troops are still in Manchuria as a bulwark against Russia and to prevent any use of Siberia by the United States. There is no evidence at present that either Russia or Japan intends to start trouble in that vital area because a policy of neutrality best serves the purposes of both countries. Rumors of recent Japanese troop movements northward and extensive reinforcements being sent into that area are unverified. It was believed, however, that there may be more than 1,000,000 Japanese troops in Manchuria, north China and Korea.

All available evidence tends to show that Japanese lines in China are thinly held and that the war there is virtually stalemated. Newspapers merely report a continuation of "mopping up" operations. In the past six months, it was reported, there were 25,000 skirmishes between Japanese and Chinese troops with a few thousand Chinese killed.

Some reports are that the Japanese have only 94,000 troops in the Philippines, which apparently is considered another flank of the main strategic areas.

Even assuming there are sizable contingents in the Solomons, in Japan proper and in Burma this means there are still extensive units elsewhere. The most likely guess—and guess it is—is that the strongest and best equipped forces are in the Netherlands East Indies and Malaya, in "last ditch" positions to protect vital resources.

Japanese Press Silent. This situation seems to be emphasized by the relative silence of the press in these regions. Major stories there concern withdrawals of large supplies of raw materials by the Japanese, but there is no coverage of political or social developments, which contrasts sharply with the extensive publicity given native cooperation, progress in extending Japanese culture, etc., in other Japanese dominated areas.

The Japanese press also is meagerly covering the Solomons campaign, with some intimations that things are not going so well. There is no explanation, however, of the strategic importance of the operations in that area.

The Japanese assert that Japan has now acquired almost all the raw materials she needs for her war effort. Obviously the Japanese are attempting feverishly to exploit these in the fullest measure, using all that are obtainable for war production. Big weaknesses, however, are shortages of high octane gasoline and high grade lubricating oil, neither of which is obtainable in the Netherlands East Indies.

Moreover there are indications that the inevitable breakdown of virtually irreplaceable machinery in vital factories may be underway or will be soon.

Machine Tool Scarcity.

Industrial and production accidents are all tightly guarded secrets and their extent, therefore is unknown. But one of the major bottlenecks facing Japan's war effort is known to be machine tools. Some replacements may have been received through visits of German freighters, several of which have appeared in Japanese ports recently. They may have taken out rubber and tin, and perhaps oil. But the extent of such commerce is believed to be small.

Japan's communication lines appear to have been disrupted recently but it is not known what effect this has had on the interchange of raw materials. The people themselves are receiving none of the rubber, cotton, tin or sugar which Japanese propagandists say is being withdrawn from the southern areas. There are reports that so much sugar is being transformed into industrial alcohol in Indo-China and the Philippines that the residents of these normally overproduced countries have been placed on more stringent rations than Shanghai.

Meanwhile the press has been reiterating that it will be a long and difficult war, at the same time lauding the fighting superiority of the Japanese. As an example of the current propaganda tone the press announced the withdrawal from Guadalcanal as a "great strategic success, our troops having accomplished their mission on that island."
